

Sait Naderi

Sait Naderi was born in 1961. He graduated from Ege University, Faculty of Medicine, Izmir-Turkey in 1984. He completed his neurosurgery training in Department of Neurosurgery of Ankara University, in 1990. He completed spine research fellowship programs in Barrow Neurologic Institute, Phoenix, Arizona, USA, and in Division of Neurosurgery, New Mexico University, Albuquerque, New Mexico, USA in 1996. Dr. Naderi worked in different academic positions in Marmara and Dokuz Eylul Universities. He is working currently as professor and chairman in Department of Neurosurgery, Health Sciences University, Umraniye teaching and Research Hospital, Istanbul. He is member of many national and international neurosurgery and spine societies, including Turkish Spine Society, European Spine Society. Dr. Naderi is current president of World Spinal Column Society. He is also in the editorial board of many spine related journals, including European Spine Journal, World Neurosurgery, Turkish Journal of Spinal Surgery, and world spinal column journal. He published more than 200 papers and book chapters.